“Neighboring GCC countries (Kuwait & Oman) have announced major infrastructure projects that will absorb a significant exportable quantity from the UAE... In addition, Qatar is expected to spend almost US$60 billion within next five years in order to be ready to accommodate the 2022 FIFA World Cup...”

Feb 2011, World Cement

CMT's 6th Middle East CemenTrade will highlight both critical issues & market intelligence:

- Global trade flow and impact on the Arab nation
- Role of Turkey as the crossroad between Europe & Middle East
- Cement market analysis covering the GCC & Levant region
- Reality of the construction sector – medium to long term outlook
- Logistics challenges, freight market outlook, alternative fuels, etc

And many more!

You will network with

Senior executives from international/regional cement producers/traders, ready-mix concrete, pre-cast & building materials companies, cement raw materials suppliers (slag, fly ash, steel, coal), construction/infrastructure/building/equity/research analysts, project financiers/banks, engineering, technology & equipment providers, logistics & shipping companies (dry bulk and cement carriers)
