“Fresh Optimism to Mitigate Regional Cement Glut”

Cement utilization in the Middle East is expected to keep pace with global cement consumption average of six percent. Driven by the revival of construction projects but dampen by overcapacity and competitive pricing, how will the regional cement markets evolve to meet challenges?

“Predicted growth rate in Oman’s construction industry between 2010 and 2014 will be 5.8%. The most significant of the current development projects will focus on the capital Muscat, where 24 mega projects will be undertaken across the city...”
