

Myanmar Telecoms Summit

2-3 July 2013, Yangon

Telecoms Reforms - The Way Forward!

Myanmar aims to hugely increase the mobile and fixed phone penetration by 80% in 3 years, as currently teledensity in Myanmar is less than 10% of the population. Myanmar's on-going telecoms tender has attracted strong interest from all over the world, vying for 2 Telco licenses to be awarded to foreign companies by end Jun 2013. What's next after the tender award? What needs to be done? Are the laws and regulations in place by then?

- New Telecoms Law & its impact on Telco investment
- Telecoms & ICT industry Development Master plan & Policy
- Infrastructure Outlook - ownership issues & appropriate model
- Legal framework to protect operators & consumers
- Spectrum Policies & Management
- Pricing & Tariff issues
- Project finance, private equity and venture capital trends
- E-commerce opportunity and review of E-commerce Law
