Facts and why Istanbul ?

The Middle East region represents the highest growth area for the food and drink industry in the world. Rapidly changing demographics in the region and the growth of consumer choice can be seen across the confectionery, juice, bakery and catering segments in the region. Glucose and starch production capacities are expected to increase to serve this growing demand. Further, industrial application for starch in textiles and paperboard industry intensifies the need for starch and alternative feedstocks like cassava are explored. Turkey’s growing economy and Istanbul’s strategic geographical positioning as the only city in the world that bridges two continents, Europe and Asia is the most strategic venue for this important event.
