“Transformation for Sustainable Growth”

Significant transformation is taking place in Myanmar’s mining sector now as the new government makes serious moves to amend the mining law to encourage new and sustainable mining partnership in the country.

While guidelines of the new mining law set to be finalized in the coming months, momentum for investors’ confidence and interest in mining exploration permits grow. Officially hosted by newly formed Ministry of Natural Resources & Environmental Conservation, 3rd Myanmar Mining Summit returns to Yangon this October, with the latest in regulations, investment opportunities, safety and technologies in this important last mining frontier.

Key discussion highlights:

- Mining law amendment & guiding regulation
- Updates on the renewed incentives to encourage co-operations & investment
- Metals commodity market outlook & progress of Myanmar’s gold & metal exchange
- Investing in Myanmar mining exploration & financing options
- Case studies & showcase of existing projects/operations
- Safe & environmentally sustainable mining: benchmarking & solutions
- CSR & community engagement
