STARCH Value Chain ASIA

27 - 29 FEB 2024 / VIENTIANE, LAOS

Key Highlights:

- Changing landscape of Asia's carbohydrate markets.
- Industrial & food grade tapioca starch in Laos & expansion plans.
- Sustainable, climate-smart agri technology for rice & cassava cultivation.
- Biogas to energy from cassava mills - potential for future growth in Asia.

Why Laos?

Laos has the potential to be a major cassava producer and in the last 5 months of 2023, it has been reported that Laos earned more than US$408 million by exporting cassava, making it the most profitable crop grown in the country.

The country has over 19 starch producing factories, out of which 7 factories are installing and will be opening in coming cassava season *
